Hello Margie,

Here is the Captain's Corner article for the Fall edition of the Carson Report. Also, will you please use this distracted driving photo in the article. This is the photo of me I would like to use for this edition, but I am going to try and find a better copy that is not so pixelated.

Once I locate it, I will have Jessie send it over.

Will you be sending a copy for us to review before you send it to final print?

Thank you.
